SPEAKER John Halligan, lives in Hayes, Kent and has had a life-long interest in history. In today's talk, The Lord Mayor of the City of London, John will describe the history and pageantry associated with the position of the Lord Mayor and the importance of the role in promoting today's modern City.

John joined his local Archaeological Society, as an amateur, in 1969 and continues to work with the same group as a guide at the Orpington Roman Villa. In 2004 he qualified as a City of London Guide and in 2016 he became a Freeman of the City of London. As a retiree, John guides fourteen Walks in and around the City of London. He is also accredited to guide groups around the Guildhall Art Gallery and has seven talks on London-related topics which he delivers to many local groups.

When booking, please indicate whether you prefer a vegetarian (V) meal and if you would like cheese and biscuits (C & B) instead of dessert. The choices cannot be made on the night. If you are unsure of your order, the choices you made will be available from Alan Milnes. Alan will also give you a "V" or "C & B" label to display for the benefit of the waiters, if these were your choices.

To book and indicate your choices, which must be done by noon on Monday 29th January, please phone Ian Galletti on 01959 562075 or email iangalletti@btinternet.com.

With best wishes,

Paul Julius (Chairman)

John Halligan
