SPEAKER: Andy & Nikki Gibb will regale us with extraordinary tales of their voyages Sailing around the World and the Hurricane damage they have witnessed. They sailed Intrepid of Dover across the Atlantic 3 times, then passed through Panama, crossed the Pacific and completed a circumnavigation, before continuing via Syria to Gambia and crossing the Atlantic a 4th time to French Guyana where they witnessed a space launch, gold mining in Guyana, and then the Caribbean, where last year they saw the effects of Hurricanes Irma and Maria on the small island state of Dominica. They will describe life sailing independently of rallies, the often isolated communities they visited, and the after effects of the hurricanes.

Andy is a psychologist who was Head of Global Recruitment for Royal Dutch Shell and European Head for EY. Nicky is a hydro geologist, who worked to find fresh water in Oman; and in waste disposal in the UK.
