SPEAKER Ruth Bariskill. The opening ceremony at the Olympic Games in 2012 was described by some as 'the greatest show on earth' and Ruth was in it! Though it is now more than 6 years since that wonderful summer Ruth is looking forward to reliving 'London 2012' and sharing her experiences with you – both as a Games Maker and as a ceremonies performer. She will be showing photographs, memorabilia and costumes and hopes that you will enjoy hearing about her 'Olympic Odyssey'.

Ruth worked at Guildhall Library in the City of London from 1991 until 2010. With her love of history she found it a fascinating workplace. She is also a keen follower of many sports and her involvement in London 2012 was one of the most memorable times of her life ...

When booking, please indicate whether you prefer a vegetarian (V) meal and if you would like cheese and biscuits (C & B) instead of dessert. The choices cannot be made on the night. If you are unsure of your order, the choices you made will be available from Alan Milnes. Alan will also give you a "V" or "C & B" label to display for the benefit of the waiters, if these were your choices.

To book and indicate your choices, which must be done by noon on Monday 28th January, please phone Ian Galletti on 01959 562075 or email iangalletti@btinternet.com.

With best wishes,

Paul Julius (Chairman)

Please reply by noon Monday 28th January at the very latest.
