Tonight's Special Guest

Alan Berridge from Chartwell Churchill and Chartwell

Alan will cover the rise in the fortunes of the Churchill family in the 17th Century particularly John Churchill as he became Captain General of Queen Anne's armies and was gifted money and land to create Blenheim Palace. An iconic figure who influenced Winston Churchill throughout his life.

Winston Churchill was born at Blenheim in 1874 and having a sense of his destiny went on to join the Army and take part in the last of Victoria's wars. Elected to Parliament in 1900 as a Conservative he would 'cross the floor' in 1904 and spend 20 years in the Liberal Party. The last 40 years of his life at Chartwell and that of his wife Clementine Hozier and their four surviving children will illustrate the complexity of this man.
